Enjoy the Fijian culture and cuisine. Visit the Sri Siva Subramaniya temple which is absolutely stunning and offers a unique experience and the opportunity to see another culture in all its stunning beauty. The Nadi market is worth a visit as it reflects the multi-ethnicity of Nadi (and Fiji in general) and close by you can also bargain for handicrafts from the handicraft market. To get to grips with the national psyche you have to spend time on either of the two main islands, Viti Levu and Vanua Levu. Two-thirds of the population live in urban centres and it is on Viti Levu that you'll find the country's two cities: Suva, the capital and Lautoka, a port town reliant on the sugar-cane farms that surround it. Relax at the resort. The facilities available at Fiji resorts vary greatly. Some resorts boast Day Spas, fully equipped gyms, huge lagoon style pools and modern rooms with all the modern holiday accommodation conveniences while others are aimed at budget travellers or those desiring an escape from the modern way of life. Overnight at the Sonaisali Island Resort.

Day 07 Depart Nadi

After breakfast transfer to Nadi airport for your departure flight.
